Celebrate National Night Out August 3rd

On Tuesday evening, August 3, many neighborhoods throughout the city of Auburn will participate in the 27th Annual National Night Out by hosting a variety of special events such as block parties, cookouts, ice cream socials, and visits from City officials and police. Participants are asked to lock their doors, turn on the outside lights and spend the evening outside getting better acquainted with their neighbors and local police officers.

If you are interested in participating in National Night Out this year please be sure to register by going to the home page on the City's website under the Spotlight section and clicking on the button for National Night Out (Click here to register for NNO) or by contacting the Community Services Division at 253-913-3041 by 5 p.m. Friday, July 30. Only registered National Night Out events will be visited by City officials and be eligible to receive free give-aways and support materials for your event. Items include invitations and flyers about the event, a NNO event banner, balloons, one t-shirt for the event coordinator and child ID kits. Once we receive your registration form we will send you a packet of information and activities to help promote your party.

Auburn International Farmer's Market

The Auburn International Farmer's Market is open every Sunday through September 26 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Sound Transit Center Plaza, 23 A Street SW. It's the FRESH place for fruits, vegetables, herbs, berries, flowers and a cornucopia of other locally-grown items.

Fourth of July Festival

Bring out the red, white and blue for Auburn's 4th of July Festival where Les Gove Park will be filled with activities, food and fun on Sunday, July 4 from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. Exciting entertainment and activity options include 8 inflatable rides, a rock wall, euro-bungy trampolines, a petting zoo, a pony carousel, lazer tag, gaming stations, three entertainment stages, a dj, a car show, craft grove, and expanded food concessions. The traditional favorites include a kids' bike parade beginning at noon, trackless train, bingo, bocce, mini golf, a kids' craft tent, and much more. Purchase a wristband for $5 for unlimited activities or check out the various FREE activities too. Wristband sales begin at 10:00am.
